

Finn Funn Weekend 2010
hosted by Troy (NH) Historical Society
October 29-31, 2010

March 2010

Thank you for your interest in attending Finn Funn Weekend 2010, here in Troy NH. We are planning a weekend program to appeal for all ages. Enclosed you will our program registration form. The fee is $30 for all weekend activities for adult. If you are only joining us for the Saturday day program, the fee is $20 per adult. Any youth 2-17 the registration fee is $10. Any child 2 or under is free.

The Inn at East Hill Farm will be providing the facilities for housing as well as our Saturday program and the evening dances. Please contact them directly to make appropriate arrangements. See enclosed information regarding the rooms available.

A few housekeeping issues:

- there will be no formal banquets
- 5 meals are provided to all Inn guests with their registration (see attached details)
- if you are coming for the day and wish to enjoy an evening meal at the Inn, please contact them directly for space availability and cost
- at this time we are planning on Friday and Saturday night dances at the Inn
- the Inn does not have a liquor license
- BYOB
- mixers, glasses & ice will be provided at the functions
- NH does have state liquor stores (closest one to Troy is 4 miles)
- beer & wine is available in most convenience & grocery stores (in town)
- NH has no general sales tax (only rooms & meals tax)
- any questions, you can contact Martha Silander 603-242-6402 / mks\_nh@hotmail.com

You can order a free NH travel guide from <http://www.visitnh.gov/maps-guides-and-brochures/visitors-guide.aspx> or call or call 800-FUN-IN-NH (386-4664).

Tervetuloa....

Sincerely

Kathy Marrotte, president of Troy Historical Society
Cheryl Bradley, secretary
Martha Silander